

Press Release

Akuter selects Sunaptic Solutions as Integration partner for Integrated Knowledge Management and Compliance System.

Vancouver, BC (12/08/03)-Akuter Inc has selected Sunaptic Solutions, a leading provider of business integration services, as their strategic partner for the integration of Akuter's Knowledge Management and Compliance System for their customers.

Didier Bourgeot, Akuter, Inc. President, said "Sunaptic Solutions, has an incredible capacity in making multiple systems one. If you consider that 90% of manual data entry is sourced by another computer, you see the benefit of integration. Overhead reduction, complete accuracy and real time availability are key advantages to companies able to implement business integration. When implementing an e-Learning platform like Akuter Enterprise, integration with other systems is the best way to have a seamless deployment and build a genuine competitive advantage. This is the purpose of this alliance: to provide one more advantage to our customers.

Mike Hilton, President of Sunaptic Solutions says "Akuter Enterprise is an excellent example of the value of today's applications in increasing corporate communications. They further demonstrate the desire of corporations to have information from Akuter Enterprise easily integrated with existing systems. This naturally increases a corporation's return on investment through its increased accessibility and reusability in real time."
